Monday 4th August	Sailing Week - this takes place at Seaford and involves sailing morning and afternoon, with social events each night. There will be information about this in the next Mainsheet and details will soon be on the website. It is a great family week. There is a series of cadet races each morning - whilst the adults are taking part in less conventional racing! The social events are always enjoyable and, again are aimed at the whole family. Members can camp at the Seaford site for the duration. This is an Open event so we often get people sailing from other clubs.	Seaford	All Week
